The Christian Intelligencer puts the expense incurred for seeking Charley Ross at $20,000, and describes his father as still at the task.

Louisiana was sold to the United States in 1803 for $15,000,000. It would have been a mere bagatelle for Mr. W. H. Vanderbilt to have made the purchase.

Mr. Henry Morehouse, the lately deceased English missionary, was converted in a circus in his native city of Manchester during a gospel service. He kept two vehicles and men distributing Bibles.

A man named Sterling was hanged in Youngstown, Ohio, in 1877, for the murder of a young girl. He was convicted on the evidence of a huckster, who a few days ago, on his deathbed, confessed that he was the murderer.

The latest and most vigorous obituary line must be carefully punctuated when it is stolen and used in a religious weekly. It relates to the death of a child and reads: "Plucked by God to bloom in heaven."

A little New England girl swallowed a nickel the other day, or rather didn't quite swallow it. Like the late Mr. Macbeth's amen, it stuck in her throat. She can easily swallow liquids and small bits of solid food, but large bits turn the coin crosswise and stop her throat.

A few days before the recent cold snap in the South the owner of an extensive orange plantation on Orange Lake, Florida, was offered $35,000 out of hand for the crop of oranges then on the trees. He refused it. The cold of the next few days killed all the fruit.

According to the report of the Society for Propagating the Faith, the receipts last year were $1,290,000, of which France contributed two-thirds, albeit she gets credit for having no religion in particular. Belgium gave $67,300; Catholic Spain only $860; England, $9,500; the United States, $7,100.

At Stuttgart, a student in love with a very pretty young girl had repeatedly written to her parents for their consent to marriage. Receiving no reply, he poisoned himself at the girls' lodgings. Next day came a letter with the parents' consent. At the funeral the girl swallowed poison, and fell lifeless into the arms of one of the choiristers singing over the grave.

The most touching instance of agricultural distress which has been recorded by the Western press for many a long year is briefly set forth in the following advertisement in the St. Joseph Herald: "Wanted a correspondent, I am 25 years old have one hundred and sixty acres of Kansas land worth 1500 dollars tolerably fair looking comin school education any lady fairly educated will oblige me by righting I will send my Photograph by return mail. William lemons."

Some of the Chinese similes are said to be as pointed as they are sarcastic. They call a harmless, blustering fellow "a paper tiger." A man who places too high a valuation on himself they compare to "a rat falling into a scale and weighing itself." "A humbuck making a bow," is what they call overdoing a thing. A spendthrift they compare to "a rocket," which goes off at once, and a man who expends his charity on remote objects, neglecting his own family, is said to "hang a lantern on a pole, which is seen afar, but gives no light below."

THE PYRAMID RESERVATION AGENCY.

Congressman Daggett writes from Washington, under date of January 24th, to the Virginia Enterprise, as follows:

"Following the late vacancy in the Pyramid Lake Indian Agency, the names of a number of very worthy and competent citizens of Nevada were placed before the President for appointment. He refused to select any one from the State, and a few days ago nominated a Mr. McMasters, of Rochester, New York. The agency belonged to the Baptists. I was told to-day by the Indian Commissioner, by virtue of some old arrangement, and they were allowed to fill it. I presume Mr. McMasters has never seen an Indian outside of a circus side-show; but if he has capacity enough to steal the whole of the appropriation and compel the Indians to fish for his benefit and beg their food, he will answer quite as well as the majority of his predecessors."

We are at a loss to understand how the Indian Agency at Pyramid "belongs" to the Baptists. If the principal qualification possessed by Mr. McMasters is his belief in close communion, or in baptismal immersion, there is certainly need of reform in the Civil Service. It may be that the nominee is a long-haired student of theology, fresh from college, who imagines that his work on the reservation will consist mainly in baptizing dusky savages, and pointing out to them the way to Jesus. However, a zealous Baptist would do some good among Indians if he could immerse them all. Immersion is what they most need. If the coming agent can make the use of soap, as well as the practice of immersion, popular among the Putes, he will indeed be a civilizer. He will find abundance of water in the lake for the baptism of all the Indians under his care. It may be this abundance of water for dipping purposes is what first suggested the idea that the Baptists have a natural right to control the appointment of the Indian agent at that point. The baptismal facilities at the reservation must have impressed every clergyman of that denomination who ever visited the spot.

When Mr. McMasters arrives at the reservation he may be expected to begin a revival among the Indians immediately, if the fishing should not be too good. Whether the Indians can be made to experience religion to any great extent remains to be seen. We believe that preceding Pyramid agents have paid more attention to the trout-fishery than the soul-fishery.

Besides the Indians, there are a considerable number of mules on the reservation, which are also wards of the Government. No one knows just why those mules were put on the reservation, or what they have been doing since they went on, but, anyhow, they are there. The problem that awaits the solution of the new Baptist agent is what to do with those mules. It is more than possible that he has never seen a mule, and if he examines too closely the structure of one of those Government mules, he may be forcibly struck with the most marked peculiarity of the beast. Altogether, the advent of Mr. McMasters may be looked forward to with considerable interest, and his methods of disciplining the Indians and the mules are likely to have all the charm of novelty.

In view of the floods, the Stockton Independent produces this: "The hotel runner is clearing his throat to shout, 'Free launch to the Yosemite House,' 'Ere's yer Whitehall's fur the Mansion House,' 'Get right aboard this catamaran for the Commercial,' 'This way for the Grand Central barges,' 'Steamboats here for the Franklin.'"

Mrs. J. W. Leftwich ran away from her husband in Sacramento. He got a divorce immediately, on the ground of her adultery with A. W. Pearson. Then she married Pearson, and the other day he committed suicide. Now Leftwich has been fool enough to marry the woman again. All this has happened within a few months.

Another unsuccessful ballot was taken for U. S. Senator in the Pennsylvania Legislature yesterday. The vote stood: Wallace, 78; Oliver, 76; Grow, 50.

THE PRISON BILL.

After going to press yesterday, the GAZETTE received a telegram announcing that a vote had been taken in the Senate on the bill for the removal of the State Prison to Reno, with the following result: Ayes, 14; Noes, 10. Many of the Assemblymen were in the Senate chamber when the vote was taken, and showed satisfaction with the result. It is believed that 33 Assemblymen favor the bill and that 17 are against it. The passage of the bill in the Assembly seems assured. A vote will probably be taken in the lower House in a day or two. The bill will then only require the signature of the Governor to become a law. There is no probability that he will veto it, with a majority in its favor so strong in the Legislature. Should he veto it, his action would appear to be influenced by the fact of his residence in Carson. Then, again, a gain of a few votes would enable the friends of the bill to pass it over his veto. There are 50 votes in the Assembly, and 24 in the Senate, one Senator being absent; a total of 74. The bill yesterday received 14 votes in the Senate, and is expected to have 33 in the Assembly, a total for the bill of 47 votes; with 27 against. A two-thirds vote of the Legislature is 50, and thus the bill needs to gain only three more votes to be passed over the Governor's veto. But, as we have said, his veto is not looked for, and it is probable that his assent will cheerfully be given, in view of the strong support which the bill has received in the Legislature. Although the Governor is of course friendly to Ormsby, he has no enmity to Washoe, and, influenced by the best interests of the State, he may be confidently expected to sign the bill.

The vote in the Senate yesterday was as follows:
Yeas—Brumsey, Doolin, Fox, Henderson, Hobart, McConnell, Perley, Powning, Rockhill, Schooling, Shepherd, Tolley, Westerfield, Williams.
Noes—Dayton, Farrell, Gallagher, Gibson, Haynes, Kaiser, King, Meder, Thompson, Wheeler.

THAT SILK WORM.

It appears that the newly discovered silk worm called "Bombyx Quericus," is not found in the State of Nevada, but in Nevada county, California. In answer to our inquiry, the Grass Valley Free Lance kindly gives the following information:

"In Nevada county that 'Bombyx' has been found. Prof. E. Muller discovered him several years ago, but we do not know that Mr. Muller has been able to make 'Bombyx' increase and multiply. The silk worm of the oak tree spins a very strong thread, and he might be made useful. Those who have any money to spare, for the development of new industries, should send some of it to Prof. E. Muller, Nevada City, so as to enable him to experiment. He has also found a silk worm that feeds on the wild lilac of the mountains, and this worm makes fine and strong silk. Foreign silk worms do not appear to do well in this climate, and it is probable that if half the money spent on them had been used in cultivating the native, California would now be a silk manufacturing State. We would like to hear from Prof. Muller on the subject of the oak and lilac silk worms."

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The Enterprise says: We have on the Comstock a Mrs. Cally who is 101 years of age and as spry as a cricket. She can walk further and at a better pace than the majority of women of forty summers.

The National Banks hold $106,801,000 in specie, gold coin being nearly 100,000,000, and silver coin about $7,000,000. The amount outstanding on December 31st was $317,000,000.

Senator Jones has taken his seat in the Senate. In Washington it is considered a remarkable coincidence when two Senators from Nevada are seen at the same time.

Reno, Nevada, has a scheme that is called the "State University of Nevada"—Alta.

Oh, no; we've not. It's Elko.

Hon. John W. Dwinelle was drowned at Port Costa, opposite Benicia, last Friday, in trying to board a ferry boat.

The Tax Collector of San Francisco states that there are 400 places in that city in which opium is sold.

In San Francisco the highest temperature last month was 63 degrees; the lowest 44.

ROUND ABOUT.

Forty miners were discharged from the Con. Virginia yesterday.

Aggie Parren, aged 16, shot and killed herself at Woodland last Saturday.

Louis Baggy, aged 37, was lately found dead at Sheep ranch, Calaveras county. Cause excessive drinking.

Several highwaymen recently tried to stop J. C. McHenry, near Martinez, but he drove them off with a revolver.

Eva Patterson, aged 5, was tossed on the horns of an enraged cow, in Contra Costa county last week, but escaped death.

A four-year-old child of J. F. Veith, of Mokelumne Hill, fell into a well last week and was with difficulty rescued by F. Suedsdorf.

J. O. Swift, of Utah, will build a large saw mill at Wood River, Idaho, with a capacity of 15,000 feet per day, early next spring.

Captain Jack Crawford, the "poet scout," is prospecting with a company of fifty men in the Black Range Mountains, New Mexico.

The Badie Free Press says that a breeze, during last month, picked up a plank sixteen feet long, twelve inches wide and two inches thick, and tossed it seventy feet.

There was an elopement at Drytown, Amador county, last week. A man named Armstrong ran away with Mrs. Cabral. They were overtaken and the woman taken back.

The California girls who have been visiting the Comstock stood the heat of the mines very well. The Gold Hill News remarks that California girls are generally so constituted that few places are too hot for them.

A very important sale of placer mining property recently took place in Arizona Territory, involving the transfer of a half million of dollars, for the privilege of working certain ground for gold, on the San Francisco River, six miles above Clifton.

The Placer Herald says that John McGillivray, one of the sons of Superintendent McGillivray of the Dardanelles mine, Forest Hill, had a pistol, which he was carrying in his pocket, explode, and the ball entering the leg a little below the knee, ranged downward and passed through the foot.

The two Hall Brothers, New Mexico cattle kings, have disposed of their ranch and stock in Colfax county for the immense sum of $400,000. About a year ago one of the brothers, of whom there were then three in partnership, sold out the other two his interest, receiving $100,000 and 8,000 head of cattle.

On January 11th it commenced snowing in the Wood River region, Idaho, and did not cease until the night of the 15th. The total depth of snow at Ketchum and for 15 miles below, is a few inches over five feet. Above Ketchum, towards Galena, the snow is over six feet deep. The mail is all being carried on snowshoes above Ketchum, to Galena and Sawtooth on the Salmon.

Drowned While Trying to Save Life.

SAN JOE, January 31st.—Yesterday afternoon between 3 and 4 o'clock, two men, Henry Shurruck and Robert Schall, started from this city in a buggy to reach the stone quarry on the Almaden road, 7 miles south of here. They reached the road on the Guadalupe Creek, opposite James Quivy's place, and were advised not to attempt to cross, owing to the swollen condition of the stream, but Shurruck, who was partially drunk, took no heed, and drove in. They were nearly across when the buggy was upset and the men were thrown out in the water, and both were drowning when Quivy jumped in and succeeded in dragging Shurruck, who was about dead, to the shore. At the same time, Johnny Pearl, a young man aged about 24, a nephew of John Pearl, dairyman, leaped in to save Schall. The latter reached a log and held on until he was afterward rescued, but Pearl was seized with a cramp and drowned. The body has not yet been recovered. Pearl was an excellent swimmer, and, although advised not to go in, was confident, and as a consequence lost his life.

Going Straight to Hell.

Mr. Moody spoke in one of his San Francisco exhortations of the fate of those who, otherwise good persons, were not regenerated by divine grace. He referred feelingly to a dear grandmother who had died unconverted, saying: "although she was good and kind and dearly loved by me, I fear she has met with the reward of all who die not owing Christ. I know she is in hell." At that moment a young man near the front arose and walked down the aisle toward the door. "There is a gentleman," said the revivalist, "who is tired of listening about Christ. He is going straight to hell." The object of this public rebuke turned and said in a quiet clear voice: "Well, is there any message I can take to your grandmother, Mr. Moody."

Warning to Parents.

Parents who are so unfortunate as to have destructive boys on their hands are notified by the school trustees to keep them from breaking the windows and shutters in the old school building. The bad boy delights in smashing glass and breaking window shutters in vacant buildings, and the old school house is suffering in consequence. The Trustees have employed a watchman, and if a boy is caught doing any injury to the schoolhouse his father will be required to pay damages. Parents are requested to either refrain from having bad boys, or to keep them in better order.

A number of hoodlums entered the Theatre Comique at about half past nine o'clock last evening and created a disturbance, pulling down benches, putting out lights, etc. Tracy, the proprietor, was engaged in his professional duties on the stage. One of the boys advanced and kicked over a lamp which did duty as a footlight, and Tracy knocked him down. Tracy also found it desirable to knock another of the boys down. Then they subsided, and the performance went on without further interruption.

The Franktown Dam.

The Franktown dam is still standing at this writing—(2 p. m.) It is estimated that there is as much water in the reservoir as there is now in Washoe lake—an immense body. The dam may stand the pressure, or it may break at any moment. The probabilities seem to be that the ranchers in the valley below it will get their irrigation in the shape of a wave this season.

P. S.—The latest report from Franktown this afternoon is that the dam is "all right."

Stocks.

There is a "general goneness" about the stock market that is disheartening to operators. A big break would create some activity, but this constant sinking takes all the life out of the market. This morning the lowest prices touched by leading stocks were as follows: Ophir 5, Mexican 5 1/2, Sierra Nevada 5, Utah 5 1/2, Union 8 1/2, Alta 85, Hale & Norcross 2.95.

K. of P. Excursion.

The Enterprise says: Six cars will be run from the Comstock by the Knights of Pythias next Monday night, on the occasion of their excursion to San Francisco. Of these three will start back next Saturday night and three will remain till the next Monday night.

INCREASING LICENSES.

An Act Which, If Passed, Will Close Up Many Saloons.

The following is a copy of a bill introduced by Assemblyman Bradshaw, to amend an act to provide revenue for the support of the Government of the State of Nevada. It provides that Section 1, of the Act of 1889, relating to the sale of liquors, shall be amended as follows:

Sec. 1. Section 65 of said Act of 1889 is hereby amended so as to read as follows: Section 65. Any person or persons who may dispose of any spirituous, malt or fermented liquors in less quantities than one gallon shall, before the transaction of any such business, take out a license from the Sheriff of the county in which he or she proposes to do business, and pay therefor the sum of $150 per quarter-year in advance; provided, that all persons engaged in retailing liquors as aforesaid in connection with entertainment for travelers, at any point distant five miles or more outside the limits of any city or town in the State, shall pay a license of $75 per quarter-year in advance; and provided, further, that no such person or persons shall be entitled under or by virtue of said license to sell or cause to be sold within this State, any spirituous, malt or fermented liquors or wines on any day upon which any general or special election is held in any county, city, town or election precinct in this State, but it shall be expressed in every license so granted that the person or persons to whom the same is granted shall not sell or cause to be sold any such liquors or wines on such day or days aforesaid.

The large saloon keepers are said to be in favor of the bill, as it will to a great extent prevent competition in the sale of spirituous liquors, and increase the business of those who pay the license, proportionately. It has been read twice under a suspension of the rules in the Assembly, and referred to the Committee on Ways and Means.

An Indian Murder at Pioche.

Says the Record: "On Saturday morning last the Indians around Pioche discovered that one of their number had been murdered in a ravine near the hospital and an attempt made to burn the body of the Indian after he was killed. It was discovered that he had been killed by a Snake Indian called 'One-Eyed Jack,' who had enticed him out to that spot and beat him to death with rocks. The Indians here pursued Jack as far as Bristol and intended taking summary vengeance on him, when some white men interfered and prevented his being killed."

In Hot Water.

The Orr Ditch Company have got into hot water. There is a dispute over the election of Trustees at the annual meeting held last month. There were two tickets before the meeting, and A. H. Manning, B. F. Leete, R. A. Frazier, D. Powell and Thos. E. Haydon were elected and are in possession of the property and books of the company. But another set of Trustees, who claim to have been legally elected at said meeting, have made a demand for the books, etc., and propose to begin suit immediately.

A Case of Larceny.

Pat. Connell has been arrested on a charge of larceny. He is charged with obtaining some luggage from the Central Hotel under false pretences, and appropriating the contents. The luggage belongs to a man named Shay, now at Mount House. Connell has not yet been tried, as the officers are endeavoring to get more evidence against him. It is uncertain whether he will be tried on a charge of grand or of petty larceny. The size of the larceny will probably be definitely ascertained when Shay is heard from.

A Profitable Railroad.

The annual report of the V. & T. Railroad Company for 1890, submitted to the Secretary of State, makes the following showing: Total cost of construction, $4,856,042; total indebtedness, $992,600; due the road, $197,611; total transportation receipts, $1,124,300; tons of freight handled, 343,924; operating expenses, $674,533; dividends paid, $180,000; net traffic earnings, $449,746; bonds redeemed, $103,000; interest paid on bonds, $97,350.

Tax-payers Meeting.

The Trustees of Reno School District, No. 10, have called a special meeting of tax-payers to be held Feb. 23d, at which the question of raising $3,500 by a special tax for school purposes is to be submitted.

JOTTINGS.

Jury men are excused from attendance on the District Court until February 9th.

F. M. Payne is going to put up a two-story house on his lot north of the depot.

Three coups of game chickens for Carson, from Minnesota, went through last night.

Of the nine prisoners in the county jail five are Chinamen and four are whites.

The invitation dance in the theatre to-morrow evening is likely to be numerously attended.

A masquerade ball is to be given on the 23d, instead of a sheet and pillow case party.

Chase & Thyes have fitted up a private card room. Their new billiard table draws well.

Game is very scarce on the meadows, although now and then a wild goose or a loon is shot.

L. J. Flint & Co. have a notice in the 50c column to all persons indebted to George Schaefer.

There has been no frost in the ground for weeks, and green grass is springing up in many places.

Dr. Snow is in Gunnison, Colorado, whence he sends the GAZETTE some copies of Colorado papers.

James T. Davis will be Floor Manager in the Theatre to-morrow night. The music will be excellent.

A skirt beautifully embroidered in silk is to be changed off for the benefit of Mt. St. Mary's Academy, at fifty cents a chance.

"Razors in the Air" will be sung at the Theatre Comique to-night. There were raisers in the air there last evening, but they were not sung.

The concert this evening for the benefit of the M. E. Church should be well attended. An attractive programme has been published. The admission is only two bits.

The Hebrew Benevolent Society will hold a called communication at their regular place of meeting next Sunday, at 2 o'clock p. m. A full attendance of the members is requested.

Those mineral specimens at the Arcade, from the fissure near the Buffalo Salt Marsh, are interesting and beautiful. They resemble coral more than anything else, and are probably stalactites.

The weather continues remarkably mild. Breakfast was eaten in comfort without a fire this morning, and at eight o'clock a man was seen sitting in a chair on the sidewalk leisurely reading a newspaper.

A muskrat was killed yesterday morning on the doorstep of J. Belz's barber shop. How the animal got there is a mystery. It may have been driven by the flood from its hole in the river bank.

The county officers make their first settlement with the county under the new salary bill next Monday. The fees were very light in the sheriff's office last month, and the county will have to make up the deficit.

In illustration of the resources of the White House, it has been remarked that Adam might walk into it in fig leaves, and come out completely clothed from head to foot in the most fashionable garments, shoes, hat, gloves, etc., of the period. So might Eve undergo a similar transformation at Sol Levy's.

A Coming Trot.

A sweepstake race has been arranged to come off on the track on Saturday, Feb. 19. The conditions are: each owner to put up $25, pay or play; mile and repeat, to rule; good day and track. Smith Hill enters Billy Lee; Thos. H. De Vall enters Willy Graham; L. W. Lee enters Bald Hornet; Wm. Robinson enters Black Charley. The race is to remain open to all Reno horses until the day of the race.

A Fortunate Printer.

It is not often that a printer falls heir to anything. Wesley B. George is one of the fortunate exceptions to the rule that printers never get rich. He had been for years a compositor in the Eureka Leader office, and the other day was left $25,000 by a great grandfather in Ireland. The fortunate printer was greatly surprised when he received the news.

A LEVY ON THE RAILROAD.

C. P. Trains Attached for Taxes in Lander County.

(Special to the Gazette.)

AUSTIN, Nev., Jan. 2.

The Sheriff of Lander county has levied on three freight trains and one passenger train at Battle Mountain, to satisfy a judgment of $24,000 for delinquent taxes for 1890, due from the Central Pacific Railroad Co. As fast as trains come in, they are tied up by the Sheriff.

Floods in California—Damage to Property Immense.

COURTLAND, Feb. 1.

The back water is still rising on the east side of the river, and the orchards in this vicinity are submerged. The river lacks only six inches of going over the levee in several places on the Yolo side. A messenger from below, just arrived, says that Brannan and Andrus Islands are submerged. The levee is broken in several places below, and the river is rising one inch per hour. Weather foggy.

YREKA, Feb. 1.

Scott valley and Shasta valley have been flooded extensively, and the snow is very deep on the high mountains with the large streams too high for safe ferryage. Great damage is reported along the Klamath, through this country and also in Del Norte and Humboldt. The ground is thoroughly water-soaked, filling mining claims and cellars and causing slides in the mountains.

COLUMBIA, February 1.

The river here last evening was twenty-five feet and eighty-hundredths above low water. Twenty-five and twenty-hundredths was the highest until this winter. The water in the tules east was two feet higher than ever before. It is also higher on the west, so there was more water passing down this valley than was ever known before. The river fell nearly two inches last night. It is now—12 m.—raining. The levees on the Sutter side, six miles below town, gave way yesterday and did immense damage—not less than $500,000. Houses, stock, furniture, etc., all met destruction.

Anxious About David Davis.

CHICAGO, Feb. 1.

An Inter-Ocean Washington special says: "Democrats are anxious just now about David Davis. One of the Senators remarked to-day that he had invariably voted with the Republicans lately on all party questions, and he should not be surprised to see him come out flatly and go with the Administration after the 4th of March. He has been heard to say of late that he was ashamed of the Democratic party, as managed by Tilden, Barnum and Hewitt; that no respectable gentleman could afford to identify himself in public life with men who tried to carry national elections by barefaced forgery and undisguised bribery."

SHASTA, Feb. 1.

During a storm to-day a cloud-burst occurred near the residence of John Forster, tearing away the large mountain side and carrying large pine trees down the mountain into the public streets. Another slide fell against the back of the residence of E. Volutine, and filled his house with mud and sand. The storm still continues. The rain-fall to date is eighty-one and four-tenths inches.

Cabinet Predictions.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 1.

Following is the latest Cabinet Bulletin from Blaine sources: Blaine for Premier; Allison for the Treasury; no appointment for the Interior is yet agreed upon; as to the Post-office, Foster can have it, but Garfield is said to have persuaded him to remain in Ohio politics and succeed Senator Pendleton, then Postmaster James, of New York, takes it; Don Cameron for Secretary of War; Levi P. Morton for the Navy; for Attorney General, Philip H. Morgan, of Louisiana.

Which Shall It Be.

The School Trustees of District No. 10 have only sufficient money to run the schools until March 1. The reasons are, 1st. They have been forced to employ three more teachers than ever before. 2nd. It takes more fuel to heat the new school house. 3d. The janitor's fees are larger. They want to know whether they shall levy a tax or close the schools. An election will be held on February 23d to vote on the proposition.

NOTICE.

Notice is hereby given to the qualified voters of Reno School District No. 10 that there will be an election held, Wednesday February 23, 1891, at the old school house, between the hours of 12 m. and 4 p. m. Said election is called to submit to the qualified voters of said District the question whether a tax shall be raised for the purpose of continuing the schools of said District for the term of four months longer, there being no more money in the fund belonging to said District than will run the schools during the month of February. The amount proposed to be raised is $1,500, including the expenses of an election, etc.
